SAVED BY DYNAMITE.
Sometimes a flaming city is saved by dynamite. A space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes a cough hangs on so long you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T.
Jray of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds, which finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and La Grippe.
At C. M. Hughes' drug store, price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

TIME TRIED AND MERIT PROVEN.
One Minute Cough Cure is right on time when it comes to curing Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. It is perfectly harmless, pleasant to take and is the children's favorite Cough Syrup. Louisa Drug Co.

Mrs. Lena Yates Myers.

For the first time since its organization, the ranks of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Lutheran Baptist Church, have been broken by death. Sister Lena Yates Myers was one of our earliest and most loyal members. The Aid was an object of her tenderest affection and a source of her greatest pleasure. The interest she manifested in its welfare was heartily appreciated, and the love she cherished for its membership is truly reciprocal. Though suffering under great affliction, her interest never abated, nor were her efforts to promote the Society's welfare ever relaxed. Every object the Society sought to accomplish became an object of personal interest to her, and the Society's efforts were always seconded by her cordial support. We count the memory of our association with her a precious legacy, and trust that the example of her persistent faithfulness under difficulties may inspire us all to greater zeal and more loyal devotion to the objects for which the Society exists. One of the greatest desires of her heart was to witness the completion of the new church building; but this privilege has been denied her. She has been called to service in the temple beyond the skies, where, free from suffering and sorrow she can join the society of the redeemed of earth and all the hosts of Heaven in praise and service to our Savior. Tenderly we will cherish her memory on earth, and fondly will we anticipate renewed association in Heaven. By the death of sister Myers, our Society has suffered a distinct loss; but she has gained much for "precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." To her bereaved father and mother; to her weeping sisters and brother; to her dear companion and darling son, the members of the Aid Society sincerely tender their condolence and sympathy in this sad hour.

By order of the Society, Mrs. Laura J. Copley, President.
Mrs. Chas. Crutcher, Secretary.

Huntington, W. Va., May 4.—The Criminal Court grand jury today returned indictments against Lieut. of Police Sam Davis and Councilman William Keefe, charging them with purchasing votes at the recent municipal election. Several indictments were also found for illegal voting.

An election was held in Central City on the question of issuing $25, 000 of bonds with which to pave Washington Avenue from 16th street to Johnsons Lane. Sixty-nine more votes than the required three-fifths to carry were cast, and the public spirited citizens of Huntington's progressive suburb are happy.

The C. & O. railway began laying new steel rail at Fire Brick, Thursday. New track is to be laid along the entire Cincinnati division and the road will be double tracked between Greenup and Russell. At the latter point the company will install so-called gravity yards, the only ones of the kind west of the Alleghenies.

R. H. Hurt, a Lexington attorney, who married Miss Leora Tippett, of Morehead, at Denver, Colo., some months ago, left this city today to join his bride, who is now in Pueblo, Colo., for her health. Mr.
Hurt has been up Sandy, paying his farewell visit to his father and mother, who reside at Hager Hill. Mr.
Hurt will make his future home in Colorado or California.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lewis Prichard leave today for Richmond, Va., to decide on a future location. It is probable that they will close a deal for a fine plantation 15 miles from Richmond. The place is most desirable with all the advantages of both country and city, the local trains passing there every 30 minutes. Mr. Prichard has already been offered positions in Richmond—Cattell's Press.

A deal has just been consummated whereby Floyd S. Chapman has sold the Logan County Banner to J. A.
Grose, a well-known newspaper man, whose home is now at Barboursville.
Mr. Grose formerly lived at Sutton, and has been publishing the Methodist Advocate for a number of years. It is said that Mr. Grose will devote much of his personal attention to the paper, and that the paper will be improved and enlarged.

To secure good roads West Virginia will have to spend money and it will take a lot of it if the roads are properly constructed. Pennsylvania's appropriation of $5,000,000 for good roads was the largest ever made by a state, but New York has now come along with a $50,000,000 appropriation for good roads at a single stroke.
From the experiences of older states West Virginia should profit and the agitation in this state is not beginning too soon.—Intelligencer.

Charleston, W. Va., April 29.—Another turn was taken today in the fight between the Deepwater Railroad Company (supposed to be the Wabash) and the Chesapeake and Ohio for the possession of Jenny's Gap, the gateway from the New River in the coal fields of Southern West Virginia. The Supreme Court awarded the Gap to the Deepwater company, reversing the decision of the Raleigh County Court which gave the Gap to the Chesapeake and Ohio and awarded the Deepwater railroad damages.

The ironwork for the new bridge at the Flat Rock crossing has arrived.
The bridge men are now erecting falsework which will be completed within a few days, and prospects are that the bridge will be in place in a few weeks. J. F. Prindle, engineer, has just completed the final estimate of masonry, concrete and excavation, and has cross-sectioned the approach to the bridge which shows a distance of about eight hundred feet, as preparatory to receiving bids on same.
This work is to be let at once. The work is quite heavy for county road building in this section, as there has been special pains taken in use of light grades, and, when completed, this improvement should be an example to our friends, the County Magistrates, to follow in the future with regard to road building.—Paintsville for Independent.

Mr. Chas. H. Wagner, landlord of the hotel Ventura, Ashland, died Sunday morning after an illness of two months, aged 65 years.

Miss Jennie Rice went to Huntington last evening where she goes to accept a position as saleslady in Valentine & Newcomb's big dry-goods emporium. Miss Rice is one of the most proficient salesladies of our city.

Wai Borders, of Whitehouse, who was deaf and dumb, was on the track near Whitehouse when the extra train No. 157, known as the gravel train, knocked him down and ran over him, cutting off both his legs and crushing his skull, and otherwise injuring him internally. The accident happened about 3 o'clock Saturday, and death followed a few hours later.
He was about 50 years of age and leaves two children.

The twelve year old son of Sam Hensley who lives near Cannonsburg was instantly killed by becoming entangled in the harness on a horse he was riding back to work after the noon hour. It is supposed that the boy got off the horse before he got to the field and in trying to climb back, his leg slipped over the trace chain and frightened the horse which ran off and dragged him a distance of several hundred yards.

For the past two months a very poor imitation of the silver dollar has been in circulation in Pikeville and vicinity, the work on the coin, which is of brass metal, is so bad that but few were deceived. Deputy U. S. Marshal W. J. Keel has industriously gathered evidence. S. D. Smith, a U. S. detective appeared on the scene and clutched the evidence which Marshal Keel gathered. The result was the arrest by Keel of John Cox on a warrant sworn out by Smith, Cox is a laborer, well known in Pike. With numerous family of children he lives on the bank between Choe and Perguson creeks. He had a hearing before U. S. Commissioner, L. E. Gray and was held in $500 bail to the Federal grand jury.—Pikeville Republican.

Strother Mays, a N. & W. detective, in attempting to arrest two tramps who hopped their way to Kenova on a freight train over the Big Sandy division of the road, was shot three times. Mays saw the tramps get off the train and demanded that they surrender, when the smaller one, a negro, pulled a revolver and fired three times at Mays, one ball taking effect in the groin and the other two entered the body through the right side. Blood wounds were at once sent for and put on the trail of the fleeing desperadoes who had taken to the hills, but up to a late hour they had not been captured. Dr. York, who had attended the wounded man, stated that while the wounds were of a serious nature, it was his belief that the wounded man would recover.—Daily Press.
